SUSTAINABLE CASHFLOW

THE CIRCULATION WITHIN THE BUSINESS ECOSYSTEM

Womentech

WHAT IS THE NATURE OF VALUE CIRCULATION IN FINANCIAL MARKET?

After the uptrend season, all coins from trends, applications, games, and blockchain ecosystems that emerged along the rise of Bitcoin will inevitably face volatility and price corrections. As soon as the downtrend time comes, profits are taken out of the trading market, a new play field must be created to circulate cashflow and sustain the community.

The structure of Viet Nam's crypto financial market even though is thriving yet has not been fully absorbed into actual life for the lack of traditional business ecosystems. Majority of projects and developers focuses solely on technology products and communities while missing out on one key point that the essence of sustainable growth and value booster is the ecosystem with tangible values that allows both cashflow and commodities circulation.

Majority of Vietnam Financial Platforms appears to be lack of efficiency, transparency, and security.

Many projects do not “dare” to bear the name of Vietnamese products for the lousy reputation of lacking official-legal knowledge and business organizing experience, risk managemant.

Lina vs WTA

We share the similarity of focusing on the enterprise and being used within the two ecosystems which might put us on the scale to comparison. However, we are not competitors since there is no conflict of interests as Lina and WTA focuses on different aspects while working with enterprises.

VNDC vs WTA

Raised capital from WTA will be distributed within our ecosystem to generate and develop traditional businesses on platforms that powered by blockchain technology. In the crypto market, barely there are ecosystems that focus on traditional production and manufacturing.

In Viet Nam market, VNDC exchange markets are the two platforms that aligns with our business model. However, with our transparency of executive/ council team, WTA is confident to be user's choice. We gain the upper hand by focusing on the manufacturing sector which poses no threat of competitors, only potential partners.
